

Direct Support Professional

Reno, NV

Are you looking for a fun and rewarding job with a flexible schedule helping people with intellectual and developmental disabilities? Do you want to make a difference in someone's life? Do you want a job that's more than just a job? Join Overture and be a part of a team that believes everyone has the right to make choices and pursue opportunities to be the person they want to be!

We have an immediate opening for a Direct Support Professional in our growing Intermittent Supported Living Arrangement or ISLA Program. This fun and rewarding job is responsible for:

- Developing, implementing and monitoring person-centered plans for the people we support
- Assist the individuals supported in maintaining and/or enhancing the skills needed to living as independently as possible.
- Caring for their personal health and safety needs

We are looking for someone who is reliable and committed to helping adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities reach their goals and realize their potential. The people we serve rely on our staff to be there and support them so we're looking for someone who is passionate and dedicated to helping others.

Must have a high school diploma or equivalent, reliable form of transportation, and pass a background and motor vehicle check. No previous experience required!
